JOHNSON AND NILSON MAY COME. Latter Says He Can Get No One to Com-

Though some great skating races are on the programme at the Ice Rink for next week. Manager Manning is in some doubt as to whether they will be contested. He ns to whether they will be contested. He has offered hig money for the crack professionals, and Johnny Nilson is the only one who is willing to come, evidently. Nilson wrote to St. Louis stating that he could get see one to come here with him, according to Mr. Manning, but in an interview at Buffalo last week Johnny Johnson stated that he was scheduled to appear in St. Louis all next week with Nilson in three big skating races, which were to be run in heats. It consequence, nothing is known definitely as to the running of the races.

consequence, nothing is known definitely as to the running of the races.

Johrsen and Nilson have been skating match races in Pittsburg and Buffalo this week, and at their hist meeting a dead heat resulted, in the fast time of 2:29 for the mile. As they skated in a small rink the time is thought to prove the short measurement of the track. At Pittsburg, however, Johnson skated a half mile in record-breaking time.

Johnson skated a half mile in record-breaking time.

An entire family is bemoaning the defeat of one man in a skating race at Montreal last Saturday. In the amateur championships of Canada, Fred B. Irwin finished second to Larry C. Piper in the 220-yards hurdle race in the slow time of 25-5 seconds. There is not much in the fact of one man's being defeated in a skating race, and one over hurdles, at that. This race, however, is different. The hurdle championship has been held by one family in Canada for the last ten years. A representative of the Irwin family first won the title in 1891. He repeated his success in the two years following, and in his third victory established a new record for the event of 24-5 seconds, which has not been equaled in the last cight years. W. P. Irwin, a younger brother of E. D., the first winner, came along in 1894 and won the event as he pleased. Like his brother, he wen the race for three successive years, and was then forced to give way for a still younger brother, Fred. The latter won so easily for four consecutive seasons that it was thought he would be able to keep the hear in the family for years to come, as he is still in the early twenties. Last Saturday he met a Waterloo for the family in young Piper. Piper's success is probably due to the fact that he was well trained for the contest, while none of the liwins ever did anything in preparation outside of ordinary skating in the rinks of Montreal.

Friends of Allen Shaw, the "boy wonder," who has met and defeated so many local skaters at the ice Rink this season, are beginning to believe that the lad would stand a chance of beating any of the great skaters of the country. Shaw has a very nice stride, a good pair of legs and plenty of endurance for a boy of his age. That is all, as he is only 13 years old. He can do very little, if any, better than 3:25 for a mile in the rink. That time would have to be beaten at least one-half minute to keep up with Johnson and Nilson, io say nothing of beating them. It would be the same old story of the fair amateur going up against the best professionals in the world. The inevitable result is the humiliation of the amateur. He may prove to be capable of greater performances than the professionals in later years, but right now Allen Shaw stands no earthly chance of finishing one two in a race in which Johnson and Nilson start, it is not likely that the parents of young Shaw will consent to his turning professional just for the honor of competing with the greatest skaters in the world.

Games Were Postponed on Account of Trouble Between C. A. A. and A. A. U. Owing to the recent differences between the Chicago Athletic Association and the Amateur Athletic Union, the water polo games to be held in Chicago this month were postponed, but as these differences were made up at a meeting in Milwaukee a few days ago the polo games are now on the schedule and will be played from March to 12. John C. Meyers will take his team to the Windy City, but has not yet decided who will accompany him. Several good swimmers are in fair condition, but some of them will be unable to leave their business, and others do not care to compete at this time of the year.

Australian champion swimmers are already on their way to the United States, and some grand matched should result. Callfornia possesses some fine baths, and swimming has a great hold upon the sporting public. The proprietors of these baths are bringing over the following champions of the Antipodes:

Bishop, 109 yards; Craig, 229 yards; Dick Carili, half mile.

the Antipodes:

Bishop, 109 yards; Craig, 229 yards; Dick Carili, half mile.

These men are reheduled to arrive on the 25th of this month, and they will meet the fastest swimmers of the Pacific slope.

The management of the great Chicago water carnival, which takes place next month, will try to get the Australians to compete there. Should they do so, the Eastern champions will meet them, and a fair comparison may be made.

The Pan-American Exposition is also going to hold some-important swimming races. They already hope to get over from England Jarvis, the greatest of all amateurs from a half mile to ten miles, and Lane, the record holder from 109 yards to 149 yards. The latter is also an Australian.

Should these men come, Schaffer, Wenck and one other American champion will have an excellent chance of trying their speed and staying qualities against the best swimmers in the world. Such a list of champions would be thoroughly representative and the first real international swimming contests ever run off in America.

T. Truxton Hare joined the squad of candidates for the University of Pennsylvania track team Saturday. The Quikers are basing most of their hopes for points in the weight events upon the ex-foothali captain. Trainer Turner thinks that Hare should do better this year than ever before, and, if he shows the form he did last summer at the Olympian games in Paris, he should win the hammer throw and score in the shot put. At Paris Hare threw the hammer list feet, beating out all the contestants but Flannigan, the world's champion. He also has a record of 42 feet 19 inches in the shot put.

The first of the series of handicap shot putting was held on Frankith Field Satur-naturally without any special training.

Columbia won the test last year by a wide margin, and because of her easy victory classes have been formed at Yaie, Minnesota and other universities to develop strong men and so overcome Columbia's prestige. At both Harvard and Columbia the tests are designed simply to gain an idea of the average strength of representative collegians who have undergone no special preparations.

The athletic directors of these two universities desire that the competitions should require no special preparations. Other colleges are to make the tests a new and elaborate branch of sporting rivalry requiring considerable training.

It is almost certain that the meeting of the Newport track will open on the first Saturday in April, and continue up till and including the first Saturday in June, making forty-eight consecutive racing days all told at the Licking Valley course.

If the dates for the Newport track as herein stated are adhered to there does not seem to be a way to avert a turf war in this immediate vicinity.

GENEROSITY OF HORSE BUYERS. Buy Property of Widow at Many Times Its Value.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL Lexington, Ky., Feb. 12.—The trotting days closed this afternoon, 333 head having been offered in that time, bringing a grand total of $80,383. The prices to-day were small, seventy-two head averaging but $151.

The only incident was the extraordinary generosity of horsemen in the case of Mrs. Irving Halsey, widow of the late Judge Halsey. He was one of the authorities on trotting matters in the country, and left his widow nothing but a mare, Archilett, by Almont Archy, dam Minnle, and a yearling filly mare, by Electric Bell, which were entered in the sale. After the mare had sold for $30, a contribution of $218, started, by J. E. Bathgate of Newark, N. J., was laid in money on the mare's back. The filly was sold by a system of $5 bids, by which $150 was realized. The lucky man, Sheriff Henry Bosworth, gave her back, and she was resold for $101. The widow cleared over $500.

FIFTY-TWO IN A CROSS-COUNTRY.

High School Boys Take a Two-Mile Run Through Forest Park. Fifty-two High School boys participated in a two-mile cross-country run through Forest Park yesterday afternoon. It was not a race, but a training run, as the High School boys are taking a deal of interest in cross-country running and will train for that style of contest all through the winter months, with the expectation of taking on St. Louis University or some other local school team in matches. They will also compete among themselves for the Harvard cups, donated by the alumni. As many of the boys hate to take the chance of being beaten out at the finish when nothing is at stake, it was agreed before the start that no one should sprint at the finish. The run was paced by Mr. Miller, a teacher at the High School, and his even work suited all the starters, who finished the two miles in fourteen minutes. The number of starters exceeds that of elither of the two previous runs by four men, forty-eight boys taking the run on last Wednesday.

A third postponement of the match has been made. It was last scheduled for tonight, but on Monday last Creedon was again notified at Brooklyn to once more delay his coming to Texas. The hitch is in the interpretation of the Texas anti-prize fight law.

County Attorney Summers says he will prevent the match taking place unless a favorable opinion is procured from the Attorney General; soffice. Manager Haynes of the Olympic Club has sent the club's attorney to Austin to get an opinion from the Attorney General, and expects to hear finally to-morrow. If the opinion is favorable the fight will take place inside of two weeks' time; if unfavorable it will be finally abandoned.

QUICK KNOCKOUT. Scanlon-Burns Mill Lasted a Minute

Hot Springs, Ark., Feb. 22.—The fight to-night between Jim Scanlon and Jimmie spectators prepared themselves after the spectators prepared themselves after the preliminaries to see something good, but they were sadly disappointed.

The first effective blow delivered by Scanlon landed on Burns's jaw, knocking him down. He took nearly the full time to get up, but could hardly stand, and two more blows in the face put him out.

Referree Bat Masterson announced that Dan Creedon was expected to be at the ringside to-night to challenge the winner, but that he had not arrived and that he had been authorized to say that Creedon would meet Scanlon in the arena at Whittington Park about March I or very soon thereafter.

Halli's manager has challenged Paptiste to another bout, but wants all holds to go, including the "strangle" and the "mother." These are the Turk's best holds. The "strangle" every one knows. The "smother" is not, properly speaking, a hold. It is really smothering a man by holding him fast and placing the fleshy part of the abdomen over his face. As all the Turks are fat, this trick is a very effective one with them. It was the hold which Yousouf used to administer to Jenkins the only defeat he ever has sustained. It was an inverted "amother."

JANOWSKI WINS AGAIR.

Still Lends in the Houte Carlo Chess Tournament With Nine Games. Monte Cario, Feb. 22.—Janowski was a winner once more to-day in the twelfth round of the international chess tournsment, defeating Schlechter, his closest rival.
Janowski's score now is nine games won and two lost, while that of Schlechter is eight games won and three and one-half lost. Marshall had an easy victory over Reggio, while Marco won from Gunsberg.
When the noon adjournment was taken the games between Blackburne and Tschigorin, and Miesse and Scheve were unfinished. Sickness prevented Winawer from playing to-day, and Didler, who was to have met him, profited by forfeit.
At the afternoon session, the following additional results were recorded. Tschigorin succeeded in establishing a win in the end game stage, Blackburne resigning, and Mieses succumbed to Scheve, who now stands second to Janowski. Following are the scores of the competitors to date:

Name.

COMISKEY, MCGRAW AND GRIFFITH.

Big Trinity of Baseball Will Reet in St. Louis This Morning. Charlie Comiskey, the leader of the only Charile Comiskey, the leader of the only championship baseball club St. Louis ever had, captain and manager of the only four-time-winners known to baseball, dropped into St. Louis yesterday. Comiskey came from Chicago, where his American League club is located. With his wife, he is visiting at No. 554 Wells avenue, the residence of Mrs. Comiskey's sister. He will be in the city some days. He expects to be in the city some days. He expects to be in the city some days. He expects to be in the city some days. He expects to be in the city some days. He expects to be in the city some days. He expects to be in the city some days. He expects to be in the city some days. He expects to be in the city some days. He expects to be in the city some days. He expects to be in the city some days. He expects to be in the city of the baseball brains of the country. He is molety of the baseball than Comiskey, Griffith or McGraw. Griffith probably is the brightest, most incistve and appreciative of the lot, but he lacks the judgment, balance and weight of the other two. His brain is always on the grift and his ideas, ofton chimerical and impracticable, always have a foundation in right and honesty. He is more of a philosopher and less of a politician than his comrades. He believes in doing what is right, regardless of results, while McGraw and Comiskey believe in results more than in methods or principles.

Mr. Comiskey says that the much-heralded association football team composed of baseball players will surely turn up for play at Athletic park to-morrow, and that McGraw and Griffith will take part in the game. The leader of the old Browns looks much better at present than he ever did when he was playing ball in St. Louis. He weighs 200 pounds, is tall and straight, as of yore, and his face is as ruddy as that of a milkmaid.

George Touhey of Detroit, who is manager for Tom Jenkins, the Cleveland wrestler, is in the city. He says that Ed Mc-Kean, the old shortstop, is training with Jenkins in Cieveland. Though McKean is in pretty good condition, Mr. Touhey says that he will never again play baseball. McKean is a Democratic candidate for Alderman in his native city.

Frank Figgemeier has been claimed by the Little Rock team of the Southern League. Figgy is rather a good man for that company. At one time he was almost of National League caliber. The playing of protracted Bacchanalian roles did not do him any good. George Winters, another St. Louisan who won fame as a five-hits-inone-game man while with Syracuse in 1978, is also on the claim list of the Little Rock team, which will be managed by Mickey Finn, the former foot-racing expert and handicapper of Natick, Mass.

PUEBLO STILL IN THE WESTERN. ager of the Pueblo Baseball Club, of the Western League, has returned from Sioux City. He said that, notwithstanding the reports to the contrary, he had not entered into an agreement to transfer his club to Sioux City.

"Nor will I do so," he added, "unless they come up with an offer better than has been made so far. It looks very much as if the team would stay in Pueblo or Colorado Springs."
